Vachan Prerana Din

Reading Inspiration Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm in Amrutvahini College of Pharmacy. Bharat Ratna awardee, former President of India and internationally renowned missile scientist Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's birthday is celebrated as "Reading Inspiration Day".

Under the guidance of principal Dr. M. J. Chavan, Amrutvahini College of Pharmacy organized "Reading Inspiration Day" on 14/10/2023. The program commenced with a ceremonial inauguration, where faculty members and students gathered to pay tribute to Dr. Kalam's contributions to Science and education. On this occasion, some of the diverse collection of the books in the library were showcased and kept for everyone to read.

The program was presided over by the principal of the college Dr. M. J. Chavan. While expressing his thoughts, he shared vision, leadership and the impact of Dr. Kalam on education in India. He inspired us to read various books of different genres rather than spending time on social media.

The program was coordinated by Librarian Mr.K.B. Shewale, Students and teachers of the college presented their views on literary, social, research work and other aspects of Dr. Kalam's life. On this occasion, an activity was conducted in the library of the college, where students wrote a summary of the book they liked. Students participated with great enthusiasm and they shared their favourite book and discussed how reading has influenced their lives. Ms. Shiwani Deshpande introduced the program and Ms. Sabale Monika presented the vote of thanks. The program was anchored by Mr. Jay Gunjal. All students, faculty and staff of the college cooperated to make program successful.
